Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 25-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 25 "the undulations" lack proper antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 20 and 25-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Knickerbocker.

Knickerbocker shows a spray dispenser comprising a bottle 14, nozzle 25, tube 23 and base 15.

DETAILED ACTION

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-12 and 18-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Witt, Jr. in view of Webster.

Witt, Jr. shows a dispenser comprising a nozzle 28, bottle 12, and tube 30. Witt lacks a structure at the second end of the tube for strengthening. Webster shows a second end of a tube having a structure 20 to prevent clogging and to strengthen the tube inlet (column 3, lines 26-29). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have modified the Witt, Jr. tube second end with an insert as taught by Webster to prevent clogging and to strengthen the tube inlet.

Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Witt in view of Webster as applied to claim 7 above, and further in view of Knickerbocker.

Webster lacks the bottle having undulations. Knickerbocker shows a bottle having undulations 27 and area opposite 27 to provide a snug fit for an operator's hand (column 3, lines 3-15). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have modified the Webster container with undulations as taught by Knickerbocker to provide a snug fit for an operator's hand.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 14-17 and 21-24 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Mayfield was cited to show another example of a spray dispenser having undulations.
